WORLD CLASS EDUCATION at your doorstep. DISCOVER YOUR POTENTIAL AT KISHKINDA UNIVERSITY, BALLARI.

Kishkinda University, a state private university established under the Karnataka State Act No. 20 of 2023, is sponsored by the TEHRD – Trust®. Located in Ballari, the university stands as a beacon of academic excellence and innovation in higher education.

Guided by the vision of the T.E.H.R.D. Trust, Kishkinda University is committed to fostering intellectual growth, nurturing talent, and delivering industry-aligned education. It offers a vibrant learning environment supported by advanced infrastructure, experienced faculty, and a future-focused curriculum.

Kishkinda University is envisioned as a center of academic excellence, thoughtfully built on a foundation of modern infrastructure, inclusive design, and sustainable practices. Sprawled across a scenic 50-acre Mountview Campus near Sindhigeri, Siruguppa Road, Ballari, the university offers an inspiring learning environment that integrates nature, innovation, and accessibility.

Classrooms are equipped with smart TVs, high-definition multimedia projectors, and robust broadband connectivity to support seamless hybrid and digital learning. The academic block features high-speed, secured Wi-Fi infrastructure, fostering continuous learning and research.

EXPERIENCE A VIBRANT CAMPUS LIFE

The campus houses spacious, well-ventilated classrooms, cutting-edge laboratories, and dedicated administrative departments. In its initial development phase, over 4 lakh sq. ft. of built-up area has been completed, emphasizing eco-friendly construction and student-centered planning.

Every corner of the campus reflects attention to detail—from ramps and elevators for differently-abled individuals to green landscaping and wide walkways that promote well-being.

Key Highlights:

- 50-acre campus with modern, eco-conscious infrastructure
- Smart classrooms integrated with advanced teaching aids
- High-speed broadband and campus-wide Wi-Fi connectivity
- Barrier-free access with ramps and elevators for universal mobility
- Green and sustainable campus with future-ready utilities
- Student lounges, collaborative zones, and tech-enabled seminar halls

Kishkinda University stands as a beacon of safe, secure, inclusive, and forward-thinking education—creating an environment where students are empowered to learn, grow, and lead with confidence.

STUDENT CODE OF ETHICS

In order to foster a harmonious atmosphere in the campus and conducive academic environment, the campus strictly expects the students to abide by the rules and regulations devised by the University.

I. REPRESENTATION

Every student is expected to represent him or herself honestly and respectfully in all situations, whether orally or in written statements. Honest and respectful representation includes, but is not limited to, providing only truthful material information on all applications, financial aid forms, waivers, and any other official document. Students are also expected to behave respectfully to all administrators, faculty, staff, students, and visitors in the University and to behave respectfully when representing the University at off-campus events. Students will not consciously misrepresent him or herself to any member of the community or to any other person.

II. ACADEMIC HONESTY

Students are expected to maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. Work that is not of the student's own creation will receive no credit. If a student is uncertain of what these standards are, he or she may consult his or her instructor for appropriate mentor/proctor, but a student's ignorance is no legitimate defense for academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty includes lying, cheating, stealing, and using unauthorized materials on any assignment, quiz or exam.

The act of lying is to intentionally provide false information or a false statement with the purpose of misleading or with irresponsible regard of the truth. Lying, in both academic and non-academic activities, is impermissible. Cheating is acting dishonestly in order to gain an unfair advantage. Cheating includes giving or receiving unauthorized aid on any assignment, quiz, or exam.

Faculty members must be consulted regarding which materials are acceptable for students to use on any assignment, quiz, or exam. Not complying with the restrictions of the faculty will result in appropriate discipline, as decided by the instructor or department.

STUDENT CODE OF ETHICS

Cheating also includes using the same material of work previously used for another course unless the student has permission from the instructor to do so. Cheating furthermore includes plagiarism, which is when a student uses the ideas of another and declares it as his or her own. Students are required to properly cite the original source of the ideas and information used in his or her work.

Stealing is the act of taking without permission and without intention to return. The prohibition of stealing includes property of any nature as well as academic work.

III. RESPECT FOR UNIVERSITY RULES AND REGULATIONS

Students are expected to adhere to the rules and regulations set by the University. Graffiti and defacement of school property is unacceptable and a violation of District Rule and Regulation. Students shall be responsible for the costs of the damages resultant from their behavior.

In order to ensure that the campus facilities remain in pristine condition, students are also expected to report instances of graffiti or defacement/damage of college property immediately as well as consciously account for or dispose properly of their belongings.

Illegal Substances & Betting: The use of illegal drugs and alcohol & Involved in any kind of betting is not permitted in university.

Sexual Assault and Harassment: Students shall refrain from using language or acting in a manner that is disrespectful or inappropriate towards other students and members of the University community.

Sexual assault and harassment are inexcusable and shall result in disciplinary action in accordance with the University policy.

IV. USAGE OF MOBILE PHONES

Students are prohibited in using mobile phones in the class and during any other academic activity. Usage will result in confiscation and seizure of mobile phone.

STUDENT CODE OF ETHICS

V. DISPLAY OF ID CARD

Students should compulsorily wear University ID-Card and should be visible, any violation will result in heavy penalty and non-permissible in the University campus.

VI. RESPECT FOR THE OPEN EXCHANGE OF IDEAS

Students shall be guaranteed that their Freedom of Speech will be observed by all University members, including other students. Students are encouraged to engage others in thoughtful and meaningful dialogue while refraining from acting or using language with malicious intent that damages/hurts University name and fame

STUDENT DRESS ETIQUETTE

MEN

1. WESTERN-FORMAL STYLES

- Shirt + Trousers: Solid or subtly patterned full-sleeve shirt with neatly pressed trousers.
- Blazer or Suit Jacket (optional): Usually for events, presentations, or interviews.
- Tie: Optional for most university events, but common in formal competitions or placement drives.
- Footwear: Formal leather shoes (black or brown) with matching belt.

2. INDIAN-FORMAL STYLES

- Kurta + Churidar or Straight Pants: In cotton, linen, or silk-cotton blend, with a sober design.
- Nehru Jacket: Over a plain kurta for cultural or semi-formal academic events.

3. GENERAL TIPS

- Stick to classic colors: white, light blue, pastel shades for shirts; navy, grey, or black for trousers.
- Avoid jeans, sneakers, flashy prints, or casual t-shirts for formal occasions.
- Keep accessories minimal — a wristwatch is enough.
- Hair and beard should be neatly groomed.
- Finger Nails should be trimmed and hygiene to be maintained.

WOMEN

1. WESTERN-FORMAL STYLES

- Shirt + Trousers: Solid-colored or subtly patterned button-up shirt with tailored trousers.
- Blazer (optional): Especially for seminars or viva presentations.
- Footwear: Closed-toe flats, loafers, or low heels.

2. INDIAN-FORMAL STYLES

- Cotton or Silk-Cotton Salwar Kameez / Churidar: Simple, solid colors or light prints, paired with a neatly draped dupatta.
- Straight-Cut Kurta + Cigarette Pants: Paired with minimal jewelry.
- Cotton Saree: Light, non-flashy sarees (often preferred for special events, convocations, or presentations).

3. GENERAL TIPS

- Stick to neutral or pastel shades for a professional vibe (navy, beige, cream, pastel pink, sky blue).
- Avoid heavy embroidery, glitter, or loud prints for formal occasions.
- Keep accessories minimal — small studs, a wristwatch, and maybe a thin chain.
- Hair should be tidy — ponytail, bun, or neatly open.

WASHROOM ETIQUETTE

These apply regardless of gender:

1. Keep it clean – Leave the space as you'd like to find it.
2. Flush properly – Ensure everything goes down, use the flush twice if needed.
3. Close the lid before flushing – Helps prevent the spread of germs.
4. Wash your hands – With soap and water for at least 20 seconds.
5. Use bins for trash – Sanitary items, tissues & paper towels go in the bin, not the toilet.
6. Respect privacy – Don't peek into occupied stalls; if a door is locked, move on.
7. Keep noise minimal – Be mindful of phone calls or loud chatter.
8. Be quick if there's a queue – Use your time efficiently.
9. Report issues – If something's broken or out of supplies, inform maintenance.
10. Don't leave personal items behind –
Take your phone, bag and belongings with you.

Men's Washroom Etiquette

1. Urinal spacing – If multiple urinals are free, choose one with a gap between you and others.
2. Face forward – No talking or looking around at the urinal.
3. Maintain cleanliness – Avoid splashes; if you make a mess, clean it.
4. Flush every time – Even if it's just a urinal.
5. Lift the seat if needed – And put it down after use (especially in shared spaces).
6. Avoid hogging sinks/mirrors – Others may need to wash hands or fix their appearance.

Women's Washroom Etiquette

1. Dispose of sanitary items properly – Wrap and place in sanitary bins.
2. Check the seat – Wipe if needed before leaving.
3. Be mindful of mirror stations – Don't block sinks while fixing hair.
4. Flush every time – Including for toilet paper only.
5. Zip up belongings – Prevent personal items from falling near sinks or toilets.

CONSERVE & SAVE WATER
