WITH THE BLESSINGS OF

Late Smt. Basavarajeswari FOUNDER

(1928 to 2008)

After serving the nation for almost four decades she had a vision to provide quality education to students of Bellary & surrounding region. It was her deep conviction that education needs to be joyful experience that facilitates the growth and transformation of young minds at their impressionable age and fortifies them with the required knowledge and the skills to face the challenges of a competitive world.

HER SERVICE TO THE NATION IS AS UNDER:

- Member of the Karnataka Legislative Assembly (1957-1972).
- Deputy Minister of Social Welfare and Minor Irrigation in Karnataka (1967-1972).
- Member of Karnataka Legislative Council (1972-1983).
- Chairperson of Karnataka Legislative Council (1980-1983).
- Elected Member of Parliament from Bellary in the 8th, 9th & 10th Lok Sabha.
- Union Minister of State for Women and Child Development (1993-1995)
- Represented India at the World Women's Conference in Beijing (1995).
- Participated in SAARC meeting and addressed foreign delegates.
- Founder and Chairperson of the Tungabhadra Education, Health and Rural Development Trust.
