DEPARTMENT OF ELECTRICAL AND ELECTRONICS ENGINEERING

POLICY FOR CONDUCTING REMEDIAL CLASSES

1. Objective

The main objective of conducting remedial classes is to provide academic support to students who require additional help in understanding core concepts, bridging learning gaps, and improving overall academic performance. These classes aim to:

- Strengthen the fundamentals of students.
- Enhance pass percentage and academic outcomes.
- Build confidence in slow and average learners.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all students identified as needing academic support based on:

- Internal assessment scores.
- Attendance records.
- Faculty recommendations.
- Performance in university examinations.

3. Guidelines

1. Identification of Students

- Faculty members will identify students who require remedial classes through continuous evaluation, internal assessments, and class participation.
- A list of students will be prepared at the end of each internal assessment.

2. Planning of Classes

- Departments will schedule remedial classes outside regular working hours or on weekends/holidays to avoid overlap with regular classes.
- Timetables will be shared in advance with students and faculty.

3. Course Coverage

- Focus will be on fundamental concepts, difficult topics, and previous examination question papers.
- Faculty may use simplified teaching methods, additional notes, and problem-solving sessions.

4. Faculty Involvement

- Faculty handling the subject will conduct remedial classes.
- Additional guest sessions may be arranged, if required.

5. Attendance

- Attendance for remedial classes will be recorded separately.

- Minimum attendance criteria may be set for eligibility in internal improvements
- 6. Monitoring and Evaluation
 - Performance of students attending remedial classes will be assessed through class tests, assignments, or internal exams.
 - A progress report will be maintained by the department for review.
- 7. Reporting
 - The coordinator or concerned faculty will submit reports to the Head of the Department (HOD) on the number of classes conducted, student attendance, and performance improvement.

4. Roles and Responsibilities

- Chairperson: Approves the remedial class schedule and monitors implementation.
- Faculty: Conducts classes, maintains attendance, and provides learning materials.
- Coordinator: Prepares the timetable, maintains records, and submits reports to the HOD.
- Students: Attend classes regularly and complete assigned tasks.

5. Review and Improvement

- Feedback from students and faculty will be collected after each semester.
- Necessary changes in the planning, teaching methodology, and scheduling will be made based on feedback and results.

6. Outcome

- Improved pass percentage in university examinations.
- Bridging of learning gaps among students.
- Enhanced academic confidence and performance levels.
